MARKET REVIEW & OUTLOOK

The Nigerian equities market remained bullish in the month of May, although at a moderated pace compared to the previous month, with the NGX ASI advancing 3.35% month-on-month to close at 250,385.70 points, bringing YTD returns to +60.90%.

The Consumer Goods Index also maintained its positive run, recording a 1.06% month-on-month gain. We saw large cap BUAFOOD remain flat during the month while we saw gains in counters like UNILEVER (+13.45%), NB (+6.23%), NASCON (4.76%), INTBREW (+4.55%), and NESTLE (+0.81%) among others. However, these gains were tempered by losses in some constituents like GUINNESS (-18.99%) and CADBURY (-1.57%) which closed lower.

Looking ahead we expect a neutral sentiment in June as most of Q1'26 earnings have already been released. The introduction of the T+1 settlement cycle from June 1 is anticipated to enhance market liquidity and trading activity by shortening settlement periods and facilitating faster capital redeployment.
