MARKET SUMMARY

In June, whilst trading sentiment on the Nigerian bourse remained mixed for most of the month, we saw the NGX ASI index close with a gain of 0.75% month-on-month (m/m) and the NGX 30 Index also closed in the green, recording a gain of 0.91% (m/m). Some of the major contributors to this uptick were GUINNESS (+35.22% m/m), PRESCO (+32.56% m/m), UNILEVER (19.60%), INTBREW (+18.63% m/m), GTCO (+12.50% m/m) and some other select banking stocks.

Taking a cursory look at the sectoral performance, the Consumer Goods Index closed the month with a mild gain of 1.11% m/m. The large cap stocks like BUAFOODS remained flat month-on-month while major movers during the month were UNILEVER (19.60%), INTBREW (18.63%) and CHAMPION (16.67%). For the banking sector, the index closed in the green with a gain of 4.00% m/m as we saw gains in the likes of GTCO (12.5% m/m), ZENITH (8.18% m/m) and ACCESS (10.17% m/m). In line with the CBN Banking Recapitalization plans, we saw a capital raising announcement from Fidelity Bank during the month and we expect to see more raising activities in the second half of the year. For the Industrial Goods sector, we also saw a mild gain of 0.03% m/m as WAPCO returned (+0.74% m/m). Overall, the Oil and Gas Sector was the best performing sector, gaining 11.32% (m/m) following an 11.29% rise in SEPLAT month-on-month.

Looking ahead, we expect trading activity and sentiment on the Nigerian stock exchange to be driven by expectations and eventual releases of corporate earnings for H1'2024 and see a likelihood for increased activity around banking names amid capital raising activities.
